

Joe Foster – Notes on personal sightings + events for discussion

Then - circa 1970

Now

Who I am

I am a retired IT, Electronics and Communications Program/Project Manager with a resume of several "firsts" to my credit. I was an AVP, Data Center manager for Merrill Lynch, Tech Services Consultant and technical lead for the DoD and Justice Dept (FBI). Work done for the Defense department was as both a Contractor as well as an employee working with advanced technologies including; computerized small arms weapon sights, advanced energy systems and specialized memory concepts. My background and subsequent experiences and insights were gained more through kismet rather than a pre-determined life strategy. I have been uncannily at the right place at the right time. My journey just happened, consequently, I have had experiences for 10 lifetimes, all of which I am prepared to share with you. I will also endeavor to answer any questions that you might have. Some of my most noteworthy experiences came while in the US Coast Guard where I was a Navigator and Signalman (Quartermaster), serving on board a high endurance cutter on both Ocean Station patrol and Operation Market Time duty in the Republic of Vietnam. I finished up my enlistment as a shift supervisor for an operation known as AMVER that is still providing critical services supporting international Search and Rescue efforts.

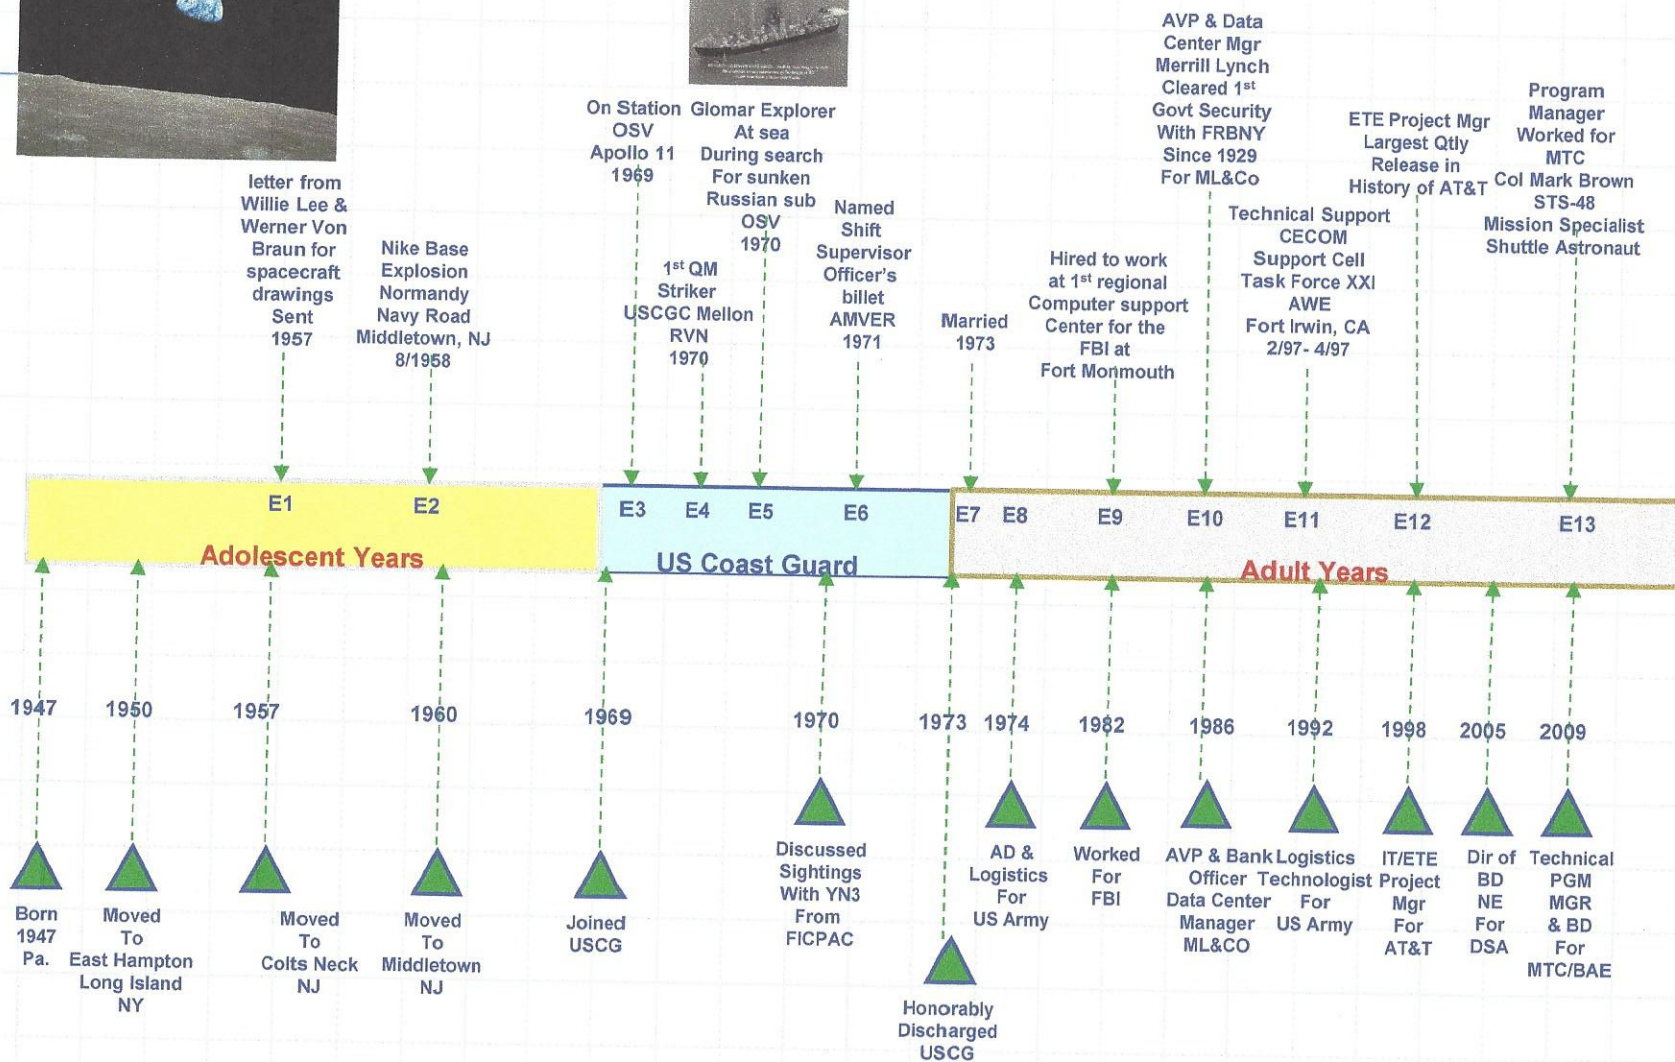

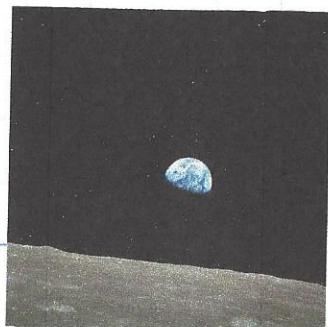

Synopsis of Lecture

My lecture will touch base with all my disparate life events however for this lecture, I will focus primarily on my sea service and other military related experiences representing four CG related events out of a total of eleven contained within the timeline. The earliest iteration of experience took place from the time I was three years old living in East Hampton, LI, NY. Others up and until I enlisted in the Coast Guard in 1969 while living in NJ. Subsequently, after I left the Coast Guard (1973) my life became one dot that eventually connected most of the other dots to varying degrees with several other incidents, thus providing a unique and more complete picture of a number of events that I had first hand experience with. Our lives truly are connected via a "silver" thread that if recognized will provide us with incredible and valuable insights into ourselves as well as the world in which we live. Some of which are awe inspiring, some of which are frightening. You will have to chose which perspective your point of view holds.

After being put to sleep in crib located in parent's bedroom, I came fully awake. Being now fully awake I stood up in my bed at the head of the crib, in the corner furthest away from my parent's bed in which my mother and father were sound asleep. Years later, I sketched a picture of what I remembered including the layout of the room and where my parents were located. I also sketched the size, shape and colors associated with the strange, nightmarish entity that was perched on the railing closest to my parent's bed and closest to my mother. My mother verified the accuracy of my memory The creature/entity reminded me of an evil clown-like being that just stared at me intently. That is all that I remember other than the fact that I felt no fear, just a childish curiosity. Lastly, a revulsion for lobster!

Narrative of Event

This event while I and my family were watching a movie at a Drive-in movie theater located on old hwy 27A in the town of Bridge Hampton, LI, NY. While sitting in the front seat of our car with my sleeping sister (4 years old) a bright, white point of light appeared about 20degrees above the projection screen. As soon as it appeared, it rapidly, at incredible speed dove behind the screen making right angle cuts, back and forth. They were impossible maneuvers that could not take place under the normal laws of physics, The entire sighting was less than 1 second. The direction the car was facing was roughly west towards Brookhaven National laboratory which was about 36 miles or so in that direction. The object was definitely under intelligent control.

Narrative of Event
While sitting on the grass in front of our house on Dorbrook Farm, facing towards the Navy road connecting Colts Neck weapons storage facility and the Navy Pier in Leonardo, NJ about 14 miles away, a bright silvery sphere about the size of a pencil eraser held at arms length was sighted. It had flashing red and white points of lights appearing randomly all around it. It was flying approximately 1000' above the road heading on a southerly course towards the Ammunition depot located about 2 miles away. Around 2001, a crop circle also appeared on the site – around time of the movie Signs. The road, although never acknowledged by the Navy was “rumored” to move unconventional munitions to and from ships and subs at the pier. The object was definitely under intelligent control. Also, sighting took place around the time of Nike explosion along Navy road as well. 10 people killed.

Short Description of Event
Event occurred one summer evening while sitting offshore on our surfboards. Bright red fireball with long green trail moving from East to Northwest, ascending at a rapid rate (estimated at several thousands mph). Weather was clear with 5% clouds
Narrative of Event
While sitting on my surfboard along with several other surfers on the line, someone shouted to look up and as we did, we saw a bright red ball of fire rapidly rising on a straight line coming out of the east and heading in a generally WNW direction. It was pretty high up however could not estimate range or speed of the object. Best guess placed the speed at several thousand MPH. Several of us headed over to the Amazing Randi's house (he was living in Rumson, NJ at the time). This sighting approximated the sightings of the early 1950's in New Mexico and the objects were described as being "Green Fireballs". That was exactly what this object was as well but with bright red core. It had no clear shape or other distinguishing factors.

Narrative of Event

During the mid-watch change (I was oncoming for the watch) we mustered on the Ships Bridge (USCGC Mellon – WHEC 717). At the time we were drifting on ocean station Victor (10sq mile area) and going through our turn-over protocol. At this time, Combat (CIC) reported to the bridge via intercom alerting us that 3 high speed targets were picked up by radar approaching the ship, with speed reported at 3500mph. We ran out to the Starboard (right) bridge wing (44' about the water line) and observed 3 points of white light appearing from direction reported out of ENE. The night was clear, no cloud cover and sea conditions less then 1'. Objects appeared on the horizon with their course directly over the ship disappearing from the Port bridge wing on the opposite horizon. Sighting lasted approximately 7-10 seconds and calculations made from visual est. speed or about 3200mph (reported). Years later discussed with MTC Pres & Shuttle Astronaut from STS-48.

Narrative of Event

While standing by awaiting orders, the ship was anchored several miles offshore in the Gulf of Siam, off of the southeast coast of Vietnam. Being anchored for several hours the Captain authorized swim call. Those in the crew who were not on watch were authorized to swim off main deck near the fantail, swim over to a secured rubber raft and climb up on a deployed cargo net. During these activities, those of us on watch on the bridge, 44' above the water line, observed a large, dark, teardrop shaped Unidentified Submerged Object that passed directly under the ship where the crew were swimming. Knowing the size of the ship we had a good idea of the size of the object. It was about 100' long and about 30' wide. The sea conditions were choppy with 1-2' crests. The wind was about 3-5 knots. Sighting lasted only about 10-15 seconds. Only observed by about 6 of us on the Bridge and flying bridge (shark guard).

Narrative of Event

While "shooting" morning stars (about 30 minutes before sunrise), I & my QM chief were hacking (working the stop watch) for the Captain and Officer of the Deck (OOD) respectively who were using their sextants. We were shooting the stars from the Starboard (right) bridge wing and were on a heading approximately 080 Degrees True on a course for Hawaii. At this time we all observed a very bright, large, mercury colored sphere heading on a reciprocal course directly opposite ours. The sphere was mirror-like reflecting the blue sky above and the sea waves below. It was estimated to be flying at approximately 75 to 100mph at an altitude of 1000 feet. The sighting lasted about 30 seconds and I thought for sure the Captain would have us send a report however, to my surprise, he shrugged his shoulders and went back to working the sextant.

Narrative of Event

I woke up in the middle of the night at about 3:05am. I looked at the alarm clock in my room at that time. I was still in the USCG however between shifts at Governors Island, NY. Between shifts, I was able to live at my parent's house in Red Bank, NJ. As I woke up, the room was pitch black because of heavy drapes pulled over the windows. The winter night was cold and blustery with about a foot of snow on the ground. Again, when I first awoke, I noticed the time specifically and in the following couple of moments, the room started to lighten up quite a bit (no, it was not my gaining my night vision). In the upper corner of the room by the door to my closet, a hazy, soft white orb started to grow from the size of a baseball to that of a basketball. The room took on a warm and peaceful aura, adding to a sense of peaceful contentment. My life changed forever from that day forward.

Narrative of Event

While working as an assistant athletic director for the US Army at Fort Monmouth, NJ, I made the acquaintance of several local resident agents who worked out at my Athletic facility. One agent and I became casual friends who shared many insights into various topical events. It was also he who was instrumental in convincing me to join the FBI when they started up operations a year or so later.

The event at McGuire/Dix took place on January 18, 1978 as reported. On or about this date, the agent in question came into the Field House visibly upset about something. All that he said to me was that there was a shooting death on a military base (he did not elaborate) however by his obvious state this event was out of the ordinary. He never mentioned anything about aliens or anything else however it was on the timeline of the McGuire incident.

Narrative of Event

It should be noted that while engaged in the preparations, active support and shut-down of the Task Force XXI AWE, there were a number of interesting events including the one's named. However the one that bears consideration are the activities involving DoD experiments taking place across the Southwest during the time of the Phoenix Sightings of which are well documented. It seems that there may be a direct correlation between these experiments and the rash of sightings over Phoenix AZ during this timeframe. Of course there was also the Hale-Bopp comet, a minor earthquake and the Heaven's Gate mass suicide event in San Diego along with the Phoenix Lights sightings. There were also many criss-crossing chem-trails at the time over the Mojave desert.

Narrative of Event

In January, 1999 while leaving the Long Branch City Hall after my Board of Adjustment meeting and during the police departments shift change a group of about 10 people looked up at a streaking plasma colored (hazy white) object that was heading from West to East out over the Atlantic ocean. The object remained at altitude (estimated to be about 20,000' and traveling at a speed of about 1500mph.

The object remained in view for approximately 5 seconds. The sky was clear with stars visible. The temperature was below freezing and there was little if any breeze. The object was witnessed by several board members as well as at least 2 police officers. No report filed because object could not be ascertained as to what it might have been.

Narrative of Event
While sitting in my normal position with my wife facing south in our Meeting House, we were waiting in silent worship, listening periodically to the witnessing that came forth from those in attendance. About ½ way through the meeting for worship, I noticed a woman sitting on the back row of the west section with worshippers facing east. She was attractive however that is not what I noticed about her. There was something “different” that I could not put my finger on. She sat there quietly throughout the service and at the end she left without saying a word to anyone. I pointed her out to my wife. By the time we exited the building she was gone, never to be seen again however, her “other-worldliness” left a lasting impression on me. If I were to describe her, it would have to be that she was a member of the Nephilim and not of this world.
